Article 1 : Introduction

The Alpine Gravel Challenge is a cyclosporptive event organised by Champéry Events Association (hereinafter the Organiser) offering the following routes:

- HAUTE CIME COURSE
- FORTRESS COURSE
- CATHEDRAL COURSE

The event is supported by the Dents du Midi Region.

The event will take place on Saturday 12th July 2025. All the races take place on roads open to traffic. Consequently, participants must comply with the federal law on road traffic (LCR) and conform to the instructions of the race management, officials and staff. These Regulations may be amended up to the day of the event in the interests of the riders and their safety. In this case, participants will be informed by electronic means (email, the Organiser's website and social networks) of any significant changes.

All definitive information relating to these regulations will be given in the roadbook and/or at the pre-race technical briefing. It is this information that is authoritative.

Article 2 : Categories

1. Absolute Male
2. Absolute Female
3. Non-binary
4. Master 40 Male
5. Master 40 Female
6. Master 50 Male
7. Master 50 Female
8. Master 60 Male
9. Master 60 Female
10. Master 70 Male
11. Master 70 Female

It is no longer possible to change categories once race numbers have been collected.

Article 3 : Participation conditions

The Alpine Gravel Challenge is a cycling tour open to anyone, male or female, regardless of nationality, provided they are 18 or over on 31 December of the year of the event for the PARCOURS HAUTE CIME, 17 for the PARCOURS FORTERESSE and 16 for the PARCOURS CATHÉDRALE. Participants compete as individuals.

For all participants under the age of 18 on the day of the race, a waiver signed by a parent must be presented when collecting their number.

Participation is limited to 1000 people. No licence is required. By registering, participants certify that they are in perfect health and fit to make the physical effort required for such a cycle race. All participants must be covered by accident and liability insurance.

Any repatriation on the course is the responsibility of the competitor or his/her insurance company. The organisers decline all responsibility in the event of non-compliance with this clause. It is strongly recommended that you take out helicopter assistance insurance (REGA, Air-Glaciers).

The organiser declines all responsibility if participants experience health problems during the event.

Article 4 : Participant commitments

The principle of this individual cycle race is to encourage riders to be semi-autonomous, from preparation to the finish line. In terms of food supplies, drinks, cycling equipment, clothing and safety equipment, as well as repair materials. Each rider is capable of adapting to any problems encountered on the course, without the need for assistance or accompaniment from outsiders.

To take part in the Alpine Gravel Challenge, each competitor undertakes to respect the rules of the course:

1. Remain equipped with all the compulsory equipment throughout the event, and willingly submit to any unannounced checks that the organiser reserves the right to carry out along the route.
2. Be a confirmed cyclist / Be sufficiently physically prepared
3. Manage your food and drink requirements throughout the race without having to rely solely on the accompanying refreshments: participants have enough water and food (dried and fresh fruit, cereal bars, protein bars, etc.) to get them to the finish line. They can secure or complete the supply of provisions and water points to fill the containers they find along the way.
4. Do not accompany or ask for help during the event outside the checkpoints and refreshment points along the route. The participants' entourage may be present to encourage them as they pass, but they undertake not to disrupt the organisational systems. Hares, whether muscular or motorised, are strictly forbidden.
5. Respect private property near routes and feed stations
6. Always follow the signs or directions given by the marshals.
7. Do not ride in groups of more than 2 cyclists, especially on public roads (the highway code prohibits gatherings). If you are riding in a group, participants must ride in pairs abreast or in single file.
8. Visibly attach the numbered handlebar plate allocated at the time of registration to the front of the bike. This will identify each participant at the start line, at checkpoints along the route and when crossing the finish line.

If the Organiser observes any infringements or non-compliance with these rules, he may impose penalties, disqualify participants from the race and exclude them permanently from the race. After receiving a warning text message from the Organisers, the number plate will be removed and the beacon deactivated.

Article 5 : Safety & Responsibility

Cycling in general and competitive cycling in particular is a physical activity with risks. Each participant in the event must take part in the knowledge that he or she will be cycling on mountainous terrain with intense climbs and rapid descents.

The Organiser will put in place a certain number of measures to ensure the safety of the course: signposting route: signposting, motorbikes, signs indicating passages requiring particular special attention.

Throughout the course, participants must comply with the safety instructions and the instructions from race personnel (civil protection, motorcyclists, volunteers, etc.), etc.). The safety arrangements for the race end when the finish line is crossed or at the the time barrier. The race takes place on roads open to traffic. Participants must comply with the applicable highway code in all circumstances. However, a safety concept with safety motorbikes and volunteers will ensure certain sections of the course. At level crossings, participants must stop when a train passes. Roundabouts are only passed on the right, in the direction of traffic. Participants must ride on the right-hand side of the road.

Any participant who has had or witnessed an accident, or who is in need of medical assistance, is obliged to assist others and to call the emergency number shown on his/her race number. The participant remains solely responsible for any incident, accident or breach of the event regulations. All costs arising from medical attention (ambulance, doctor, hospitalisation, etc.) are the responsibility of the participant concerned. The liability of the Organiser, its employees and other auxiliaries for direct or indirect damage suffered by a participant as part of or in connection with his or her participation in the event is expressly excluded, whether in the event of accident, theft or damage of any kind. By registering, the participant confirms that he/she is covered by these insurances and waives any legal action against the Organiser.

Motorised assistance or private following vehicles on the course are formally prohibited. Offenders will be reported to the police.

By registering, each participant confirms that he/she has read and understood all the information particularly those relating to safety, and undertakes to comply with them.

Article 6 : Equipment

Each participant is solely responsible for ensuring that the equipment he or she uses complies with the standards in force, and for its maintenance.

equipment they use and for its maintenance. To take part in the race, they undertake to use a bike that has been checked and is in perfect working order.

Article 11 : Timing and ranking

Timing is done using an electronic detection system. All entrants will have a timing chip stuck to the back of their race number, which must be attached to the jersey at the bottom of the back which must be attached to the jersey at the bottom of the back. This chip, detected by the various antennae set up along the event route, will be used to check the regularity of the race and also to draw up the results and rankings for the event. To ensure normal operation, the chip must not be bent or damaged. The electronic detection system is selected according to strict reliability criteria. Despite the tests carried out by the manufacturers and the excellent experience gained, there is always a very small risk of non-detection. The absence of data resulting from this non-detection will not allow the Organiser to include the official time of the participants concerned in the classification. The Organiser cannot be held responsible.

At the end of the event, an overall classification and a classification by age category will be drawn up and made available on the timing company's website www.alpine-gravel-challenge.ch

Article 12 : Awards ceremony

The first three in each age category (female/male/non-gendered) will be called at the ceremony.

The Organiser reserves the right to establish the prize board. The first three in each category must present their race number and proof of identity to receive their prize.

The prize must be collected on site on the day of the race.

Article 13 : Time barriers & dropouts

Riders must comply with the neutralisation times, for safety reasons. These time limits correspond to the times from which it will no longer be possible to continue the race from the checkpoint concerned. By not passing the checkpoints before the times defined below, participants will be disqualified and will not appear in the event ranking. If they so wish, they may continue the race under their own responsibility by signing a waiver. Their time will be recorded, but they will not be classified.

Time barriers

The time limits will be announced 2 months before the race.

If a participant wishes to retire, he or she must report to one of the checkpoints set up by the Organiser. They must then report to the person in charge of the checkpoint, who will take away their race number and inform them of the means of return. Anyone abandoning the race outside the checkpoints must immediately report this to the race management using the emergency number given in the road book and on their race number. Failure to do so may result in costs being incurred by the competitor.

Any competitor who falls, suffers mechanical damage or is physically unwell and is unable to reach the repatriation points by their own means must immediately notify the race management of their withdrawal using the emergency number shown in the road book and on their race number. The race finishers (broom wagon) will only deal with cases authorised by the race management. Any participant caught by this mobile device will be disqualified from the race. The medical service, made up of doctors, first-aiders and ambulances, may decide to withdraw a participant from the race for medical reasons.

Article 14 : Claims and protests

Any protest may be lodged in writing with the race office no later than fifteen minutes after the at the latest fifteen minutes after the classification has been drawn up. The protest must be justified. It must be accompanied by a deposit of CHF 100. This amount will be reimbursed if the protest is accepted. Protests will be judged by the race jury (race director, timekeeper). The decisions of the race directors are final.

Article 15 : Ethique

The Organiser places great emphasis on the Olympic values of excellence, friendship and respect, which are the cornerstone of fair and sustainable sport. Participants treat other competitors, organisers, volunteers and spectators with respect. volunteers and spectators. The Organiser reserves the right to disqualify participants who behave violently or discriminate verbally against anyone.

The Organiser is subject to the Swiss Olympic "Statute on Doping". Doping controls may therefore be carried out. By registering and taking part in this competition, athletes agree to abide by Swiss Olympic's anti-doping regulations and recognise the exclusive jurisdiction of its "Disciplinary Chamber for Doping Cases" and that of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (Lausanne), to the exclusion of any other ordinary court. They shall also bear the consequences (suspension/denunciation).

Article 16 : Respect for the environment

In order to respect the environment and the natural areas crossed, it is strictly forbidden to leave rubbish (paper, plastic packaging, tubes containing energy gels, etc.) on the course. Rubbish bins and "collection zones" will be set up and signposted at each refreshment post along the route. They must be used by the participants. Participants must keep their rubbish and packaging until they reach the places indicated by the Organiser to dispose of it. The Organiser reserves the right to disqualify any participant who deliberately waste outside the designated areas.

Article 17 : Legal provisions

Participation in the race is entirely at the runners' own risk, with waiver of any recourse against the Organiser whatever the damage suffered or caused. In the event of an accident, the Organiser and all persons or entities participating in the participating in the organisation, including but not limited to, the Organiser's bodies and the Organiser's bodies and employees, agents, contractors, auxiliaries, including volunteers, is excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law. Each rider expressly authorises the Organiser and their beneficiaries, such as partners and the media, to use still or audiovisual images of the race, including the preparation and post-race phases, in which he or she may appear, taken during his or her participation in the UCI Gravel Suisse, on all media including promotional and/or advertising documents, throughout the world and for the longest period provided for by the law, regulations and treaties in force, including any extensions that may be made to this period.
